SUNDAY LITURGY

1st Reading: Jeremiah 20:10-13; 2nd Reading Romans 5:12-15. Gospel: Matthew 10:26-33

Theme: Persecution

This is the theme that binds together the three readings. The light of God disturbs those who prefer to live in darkness and they inevitably react by opposition. Persecution often troubled the lives of the prophets. The first reading reminds us of the prophet Jeremiah. In the gospel Jesus says that persecution is a kind of cloak that his disciples will have to wear if they are to be firm in their beliefs. The second reading compares Adam with Christ and confirms that in the struggle between good and evil, good will always triumph.

Response to the Psalm: In your great mercy, answer me, O Lord.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia.

The Spirit of truth will bear witness about me, says the Lord, and you also will bear witness.

Alleluia.

This Sunday, 21 June, we mark the Day for Life under the theme "The Wonder of the Child in the Womb." The second collection will go towards the Day for Life Fund, which distributes grants to organisations that promote respect for life from conception until natural death. You can also donate online via the Day for Life website."
